

Fast Facts about MOORPARK COLLEGE

Moorpark College is a fully accredited public community college providing quality academic and occupational programs since 1967. Located in eastern Ventura County, Moorpark College offers day, evening and weekend classes year round. Thousands of students transfer to four-year colleges or graduate with associate degrees or occupational certificates each year.

Admission is open to any adult capable of profiting from instruction. High school juniors and seniors can attend Moorpark College concurrently, tuition free, with parental permission and permission of their high school counselor.

More than 1,500 classes in 100 areas of study are offered each semester. Evening, weekend, off-campus and distance learning class options are available. Catalogs are printed once per year and are available for a small fee by mail or at the Moorpark College bookstore. Schedules are printed each semester and are available on-campus and at public libraries. Each catalog and schedule is posted on the college's website at www.moorparkcollege.edu.
