New CalWORKs Staff

MC CalWORKs has added some new faces to the program.

Linda Corrigan, joined Moorpark College as CW Program Specialist in July 2012. She was a previous EOPS student at Moorpark College, received her AA degree, and finished up with a BA in Sociology, and MS in Counseling (Career Specialization) at California State University, Northridge. She worked at various county agencies, elementary and middle schools, Adult Education, and at Oxnard Community College. Providing Academic career counseling, job development and mentor support for students. Linda is an avid swimmer and cyclist herself, and coaches competitive swimming, ages 5 to 17 in her spare time and enjoys the company of her two grandchildren. She enjoys staying active in biking, hiking, writing and photography.

Angie Rodriguez joined Moorpark College as a Counselor in April 2012. She grew up in Ventura, CA. She received her BA from UC Santa Barbara in History and M.S in Counseling and Guidance from California Lutheran University. Mrs. Rodriguez has experience working as a counselor at all levels of education including community colleges Diablo Valley College and Gavilan College. She has also been a EAOP Regional Coordinator for UC Berkeley. In her free time she enjoys playing with her two children, watching foreign cinema, running, and sushi.
