1. Males are born males and females are born females. If this were a real exception to the rule, you would not need to ask and therefore asking means this is not a serious issue but on of degeneracy and poor values. Degeneracy and poor values, as well all know, is guaranteed to bring more degeneracy and poor values. I doubt that poor outcomes are the goal of this institution.
2. no thank you, I wouldn't appreciate walking into a females restroom and getting yelled at for not knowing whats ahead of me.
3. "I do not advocate gays or lesbians it's fucking disgusting"
4. "Providing an outlet for such aberrant behavior will only encourage the decline of our culture and encourage these disgenic and degenerate lifestyles."
5. "I don't believe you need to make accomodations for People that make up less that 3% of the population. . No add on I don't like or believe sex changes are to be tolerated like gays of society"
6. "I refuse to Conform to the New societal Norms. I don't care if the LGBTQ+ Community is around, but I feel it is wrong to force others to change in order to achieve something. I wish the community the best but don't force others to change just because you don't agree."
7. "There are only two genders"
8. "I am too lazy to write much on the reasoning for my answer. However, I do not feel that it would cause discomfort in a more private atmosphere, as well as I do not expect post-modernist idealism such as this."
