

It is that time of the year...
Please consider submitting a proposal:

MOORPARK COLLEGE
ANNUAL MULTICULTURAL DAY
TUESDAY APRIL 9, 2024

This year's theme:
Finding Joy. Discovering Connections.

All Moorpark College faculty, staff, and guests are invited to submit a session proposal for the 2024 Moorpark College Multicultural Day event. We are seeking 1-hour presentations from all academic disciplines to appeal to our students for this alternative day of instruction.

Below is a list of possible thematic topics to consider, but sessions need not align directly with the theme. The goal is to advance cultural literacy and celebrate the diversity of our campus and our world!

CONNECTIONS OF FAITH:

How Can Explorations and Understanding of Different Faiths Help us Find Connections with One Another?

CONNECTIONS WITH THE FUTURE:

How Can Examining STEM through a Multicultural Lens Offer Opportunities to Advance Knowledge?

CONNECTIONS WITH COMMUNITY:

How Can Politics, History, Sociology Offer us Ways To Better Relate to One Another?

CONNECTIONS AMONG THE HUMANITIES:

How Can Art and Literature Offer New and More Nuanced Ways of Seeing our World?

CONNECTIONS WITH JUSTICE:

How Can Connecting Multiculturalism and Social Justice Offer Ways To Enhance Social Equity?

CONNECTING IDENTITIES:

How Can We Grow Our Understanding of Notions of Gender and Sexuality or Other Forms of Identity?

CONNECTING WITH ABILITY:

How Can Expanding our Views of Disability Offer Opportunities for Everyone?

CONNECTING THE GLOBE:

How Can we Find Opportunities To Learn from International Perspectives?

To submit a session proposal, please submit a Google form by Friday, February 9, 2024.