Special Admission Nonresident Tuition Exemption Request For Eligible Special Part-Time Students

Special admission students who are determined to be nonresidents may be exempt from paying nonresident tuition per California Education Code Section 76141.

- The term "special admission student" refers to concurrently enrolled K-12 students who have been recommended by the principal of the pupil's school and have parental permission to attend a community college during any session or term and who enroll in 11 or fewer units per semester, in accordance with California Education Code Section 76001. (Except parental permission may not be required for special admission students who are 18 years of age or older.)
- The exemption does not apply special admission students enrolled in 11.5 or more units.
- This exemption does not apply to categories of students who would be precluded from qualifying for AB 540 nonresident tuition exemption; i.e., a) students who reside outside of California and enroll via Distance Education and b) students on most nonimmigrant visas (e.g., F-1 International Student visas, etc.). T and U nonimmigrant visas are eligible for this exemption.
- Students receiving this exemption do not receive resident status for the purpose of tuition or financial aid. Rather they are exempt from nonresident tuition under this law.
