

A MULTI-CAMPUS FACULTY EVENT

4-Day Summer Institute for Teaching Excellence

MAY 26- 29, 2015

STRENGTHEN YOUR PASSION WITH ACTION.

Join us for an experiential week of workshops that will inspire you to facilitate effective change in teaching and community!

Ventura and Oxnard Colleges will host a Summer Institute for Teaching Excellence for faculty from Ventura, Oxnard and Moorpark colleges.

TUESDAY TO FRIDAY, FROM 9AM-4:30PM

Sessions will be held at Ventura College, and at offsite locations

WORKSHOP CONTENT: Building upon our work with learning communities and experiential learning, we will explore current movements in education including learning communities, service learning, acceleration and data-driven decision making. New technology will be used at every opportunity.

PARTICIPANT COMMITMENT: Summer Institute participants will receive a $1000 credit. These funds can be used for travel to a professional conference or for use in a mini grant focused on student success goals or new classroom techniques. Funds will be available for a specified time and must be approved by the participant's dean. Participants will be expected to attend monthly (face-to-face or online) faculty cohort meetings throughout the year to share their work.

Name _____

College _____ Discipline _____

Email _____

Phone Contact Number _____

Applications are available on the VCCCD portal and can be delivered electronically by email to Eileen Crump in the Social Science and Humanities Division office at Ventura College.

Institute presented by Ventura College and Oxnard College. Institute funded by Title V Cooperative Grant.

Faculty participants will receive a $1000.00 credit toward travel to a professional conference of their choice or as a mini grant to fund student success initiatives in the classroom or departments. Participants will be expected to implement at least one strategy and measure its effectiveness during the 2015-2016 academic year. This publication funded by Title V Cooperative Grant.

