A. Full-time Faculty Prioritization 2019

- 1) Welcome message from President Julius Sokenu
 - a) President Sokenu summarized that for the faculty prioritization we want to align with the college mission, goals and master plan, as well as be aware of the state initiatives, what they mean and how they affect our college and students' success.
 - b) He continued to explain that we need to be strategic even in a downturn. With a focus on a declining enrollment, we need to grow intentionally and mindfully.
 - c) President Sokenu – Thank you for the hard work that you all do for our students' success.
 - d) Chris Copeland asked if the economy is down, does not the enrollment usually go up?
 - e) President Sokenu answered yes, there is that demand, but there are not enough resources from the state to support that demand.
 - f) Roland Petrello inquired about how possible retirements affect the number of full-time positions that will be selected.
 - g) President Sokenu explained that “expected” retirements will get factored into next year's decision on the number of full-time positions that will be selected.
 - h) Nenagh Brown confirmed with President Sokenu that there are two mandated positions, six general funds positions, and three non-general funds positions that will be selected
- 2) Welcome and Thank You message from Nenagh Brown
 - a) Nenagh gave a thank you to all the program plan writers and the deans, and to the IR team with Oleg Bepalov, Kim Watters and Rosio Avina.
 - b) She also welcomed the discipline presenters, the voting members and alternates, and interested observers.
- 3) Ground Rules presented by Vice President Mary Rees
 - a) The Assumptions, Criteria and Ground Rules were sent to all members; paper copies available.
 - b) Mary briefly went over the ground rules and made sure every voting member received their ballot sheet.
- 4) The Order of Business began by Nenagh Brown
 - a) A specific time slot was offered to any presenter who needed to leave. There were none.
 - b) Two mandated positions from general funds (no vote)
 - c) Three positions requested from non-general funds (yes/no vote)
 - d) Twenty-nine positions requested from general funds to be prioritized. Order started from number two (randomly selected) and then continued in reverse alphabetical order.
- 5) Submission of voting sheets.
