

THEATRE ARTS

THEATRE ARTS

AA for Transfer Degree

Theatre Arts Associate of Arts
Certificate of Achievement

18 Units (For students transferring for a BA degree)

18-21 Units
18 Units (Technical Lighting)

Theatre Arts is a diverse discipline that offers theoretical instruction and hands on experience for students concentrating on transfer and direct career preparation. Students may pursue careers in acting, directing, playwriting, as well as lighting, set, sound, costume and makeup design.

JOB TITLES	AVERAGE SALARY	PROJECTED JOBS	PROJECTED GROWTH
Radio and Television Announcer Announcers speak or read from scripts, such as news reports or commercials. They are frequently asked to host civic, charitable or promotional events that are broadcast, and/or interview show guests about their lives, work or other topics.	$14/hr.-$29,120	8,600	+2%
Actor Actors play parts in stage, television, radio and motion picture productions for entertainment, information or instruction. Actors interpret serious or comic roles by speech, gesture and body movement to entertain or inform audiences. Other opportunities include theme parks and other live events.	$22.15/hr.	28,900	+3-7%
Producer and Director Producers and directors interpret a writer's script to entertain or inform an audience. They create motion pictures, television shows, live theatre and other performing arts productions. Producers also have the responsibility of arranging financing.	$34.31/hr.-$71,350	103,500	+3%

