Moorpark College and The Colleges of Law Present How to Save Democracy with David Pepper

Moorpark, Calif. (Feb. 1, 2024) – Moorpark College and The Colleges of Law welcome the community to attend “How to Save Democracy with David Pepper” on Feb. 22. This special event will feature a lecture by esteemed author David Pepper on election law and voting rights. Following the lecture, Dr. Jackie Gardina, Dean and Chief Academic Officer of The Colleges of Law, will engage in a conversation and Q&A session with Pepper.

Pepper, a distinguished lawyer, writer, former elected official, and adjunct professor, served as the Chairman of the Ohio Democratic Party between 2015 and 2021. He earned his B.A. magna cum laude from Yale University, where he was Phi Beta Kappa, and later earned his J.D. from Yale Law School. Pepper teaches election and voting rights law as an adjunct professor at the University of Cincinnati College of Law. For more information about David Pepper, please visit davidpepper.com.

Held in the EATM Auditorium at the Moorpark College campus, doors open at 5 p.m. and the program begins at 5:30 p.m. The event is free and open to the community. Students are encouraged to attend, particularly those pursuing degrees in Law, Politics, and the Public Sector. Attendees may register for the event at bit.ly/MCPepper-Event. For event information, call (805) 553- 4760 or email mcfoundation@vccd.edu.

About Moorpark College

Moorpark College’s student-first philosophy embraces equity, social justice, anti-racism, and intersectionality. We empower learners from local, national, and global backgrounds to achieve their certificate, associate and baccalaureate degree, and transfer and career education goals. Through the integration of innovative instruction and holistic student support, our programs are designed to foster equitable student outcomes.

The Moorpark College Foundation is a not-for-profit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) corporation that accepts and solicits gifts, donations, trusts, and bequests for college-related use. It provides tax-deductible advantages to the donor. It also provides a method for the college to interact with businesses, government, and other nonprofit agencies in the broader Southern California community and provides hundreds of students with the financial assistance, recognition, and encouragement needed to realize their academic goals.
