Detailed Program Schedule

Tuesday August 13, 2019

Time	Room	Session Information

| 8:30-9:00 | Cafeteria | Light Breakfast |

| 9:00-10:15 | LLR 124 | Camtasia Training: Basics for Training and Instructional Videos

Presenter: Tracie Bosket
WHO should attend: faculty and staff who would like to create quick how-to videos and lecture videos.
WHAT will be Covered:
• Come join the Camtasia party! You will learn how to:
• Record video
• Record audio
• Record PowerPoint narration
• Record your screen
• Edit your project like a pro! |
| 9:00-10:15 | LLR 121 | Applying the CVC-OEI Rubrics: An Overview and Panel Discussion

Presenter/s: Anasheh Garabighi (facilitator)
WHO should Attend: Faculty interested in learning to align their online or hybrid classes with the CVC-OEI rubrics.
WHAT will be Covered: The RUBICS – the basics, and tips from faculty who have been through or are going through the CVC-OEI Design Academy. |

| 10:30-11:45 | LLR 124 | CANVAS for Non-online Faculty and Staff

Presenter/s: Tracie Bosket
WHO should Attend: faculty and staff who use - or would like to use - CANVAS for face to face students, communicating with campus colleague groups, etc.
WHAT will be Covered: Using key instructional tools in CANVAS for face to face and hybrid classes (gradebook, posting pages/documents, quizzes, etc., and using CANVAS rooms for collaboration (virtual division offices, program collaboration spaces, etc.) |

10:30-11:45	LLR 121	Proctorio: Using Proctorio as an online Proctor System from a Faculty Perspective Presenter/s: Brian Herlocker WHO should Attend: all faculty using CANVAS in the classroom. Especially relevant to those who are concerned about cheating online; this demo will show participants how to use Proctorio to prevent and catch cheating in CANVAS on quizzes, exams, etc. WHAT will be Covered: How to set up the settings so as to prevent the most common kinds of cheating, but without making the parameters so strict as to cause all kinds of end-user problems (that we inevitably end up having to trouble shoot). There will also be a discussion on some of the glitches you may run into and what kinds of workarounds have discovered.

11:45-12:30	Cafeteria	Lunch

12:30-1:45	LLR 124	Ally: Accessibility App for CANVAS-based Content Presenter/s: Tracie Bosket WHO should Attend: All faculty and staff. Ally is a powerful too in CANVAS that accesses the ADA compliance/accessibility of all content and assists the user in making inaccessible content accessible. Ally will be in ALL CANVAS classrooms by Fall 2019 – learn how to use it! WHAT will be Covered: In this workshop, you will learn: - What Ally is - How it works - How to know if an item is accessible or not - What is the Ally Speedometer? - How to use your Speedometer to race at top speed!
12:30-1:45		Online Equity Rubrics Session cancelled

1:00-5:30	LLR 305	CourseLeaf Training Advance Sign up required https://tinyurl.com/yycm722b We're excited to present to you CourseLeaf!

		CourseLeaf has replaced CurricUNET as our curriculum management system. For those faculty members who are interested in writing new curriculum or updating their existing curriculum, we highly recommend and encourage their attendance at this training session. The objective of this training session is to provide an opportunity for faculty members to experience first-hand how to use CourseLeaf for their curricular needs. We will familiarize the attendees with various aspects of data entry in CourseLeaf for both writing new courses and programs, and for updating existing courses and programs. We will also review the necessary steps and the time-line for submission and approval processes of new programs. We look forward to helping our faculty with their curricular needs, and we hope that by joining us for this curriculum training we can all hit-the-ground running this semester with the new curriculum management system, CourseLeaf! Facilitators: Letrisha Mai, Scarlet Relle, and Ana Barcenas

2:00-3:15	LLR 124	Blue-Print CANVAS Shells: Building Efficiency and Accuracy among CANVAS shells and classes Presenter/s: Rachel Messenger and Tracie Bosket WHO should Attend: Faculty who teach multiple sections of the same class (online or on ground). WHAT will be Covered: Faculty who would like to learn to more efficiently deploy information from one shell that will replicate in the other shells.
2:00-3:15	LLR 121	What did I do this Summer?: Tools and Tips for Distance Education classes as Presented by Faculty who Attended the 2019 Online Teaching Conference Presenter/s: Faculty panel members WHO should Attend: All faculty teaching online, hybrid and on-ground classes who would like to learn from faculty who attended the Online Teaching Conference in June, 2019. WHAT will be Covered: Tips and tricks for better teaching and learning based on input and ideas gathered from the 2019 Online Teaching Conference

8:30-9:30	Cafeteria	Light Breakfast

Time	Room	Session Information
9:30-10:45	CCCR	Teaching Men of Color Advocates (TMOCA) The Fierce Urgency of Now: Closing the Equity (Opportunity) Gap at Moorpark College In support of Moorpark College's (MC) men of color students, a group of administrators, faculty and staff have joined together to address the need to implement a sustainable approach towards teaching men of color. This group, Teaching Men of Color Advocates (TMOCAs) is looking for additional campus stakeholders to help champion our efforts to increase the success of men of color at MC. Facilitators: TMOCAs
9:30-10:45	FH 213	Deans and Classified Professionals: Inputting Travel Encumbrance and Banner Procedures and PCard Training We will cover the travel encumbrance process on Banner and travel procedures. Pcard training covers the process of obtaining a Pcard, processing Pcard feeds, and submitting the Pcard statement processes, along with Pcard procedures. This session is geared for division deans and classified professionals, though anyone who works with a Pcard would benefit as well. Facilitators: Elizabeth Thomson and Terry Cobos
9:30-10:45	FH 217	Writing Across the Curriculum Share tips with fellow instructors from multiple disciplines and subjects on incorporating writing assignments in your respective classes. Share how you evaluate student writing as a means of gauging student acquisition of instructed material, especially to assess critical thinking. Facilitator: Sona Dombourian

9:30-10:45	FH 220	Addressing Extremist Groups on Campus "State of Hate"
		Brianna Moffitt, Director of Education and Community Engagement, ADL Santa Barbara
		Presentation Description: The presentation will be an overview of information from the experts: ADL's Center on Extremism. We will paint broad strokes regarding many types of hate groups and then drill down specifically on the impact of white supremacist ideology and the impact of hate crimes & incidents on our local community. We'll highlight ways ADL can continue to be a resource for the staff at Moorpark College and how the staff can be partners in the fight against hate. If you would like me to make any adjustments to this plan, please let me know.
		Speaker Bio: Brianna Moffitt, Director of Education and Community Engagement, has been involved with ADL's Santa Barbara/Tri-Counties Regional Office for the past five years. Brianna relocated to sunny Santa Barbara from downtown Los Angeles and, as she became involved in the community, she learned about the ADL and her passion for the mission statement to "secure justice and fair treatment to all" was ignited! Brianna's portfolio includes implementing ADL's anti-bias programs – A World of Difference® and No Place for Hate® – in K-12 schools and communities across the tri-counties and connecting the community with information from the experts in all areas of ADL's work – including extremism. Brianna is also a proud Sagehen & Trojan, earning degrees from Pitzer College and USC, respectively.

10:30-11:45	FH 215	Mandatory Curriculum Committee Meeting
		Please join the Curriculum Committee Co-Chairs for an informative session on the following important agenda items:
		➢ Verification of curriculum committee memberships ➢ Review of members' roles and responsibilities ➢ Review of curriculum committee goals for 2019-2020 ➢ Review of curriculum submission timeline and approval processes ➢ Updates from the summer Curriculum Institute ➢ Brief introduction to CourseLeaf, our new curriculum management system.

		For a more thorough training of CourseLeaf consider joining one of our training sessions offered on Wednesday (8/14) and Thursday (8/15). Members of this year's Curriculum Committee are required to attend; Department Chairs and academic administrators are encouraged to attend. Facilitators: Julius Sokenu, Letrisha Mai and Scarlet Relle

11:00-12:15	CCCR	Best Practices for Adult Learners As Moorpark College continues outreach to non-traditional students and develops out PACE program, classroom instructors have opportunities to engage with more non-traditional students. Please join our special guests from the California Lutheran University Bachelor's Degree for Professionals program as they discuss the characteristics of post-traditional (adult) learners, barriers to success, and best practices drawn from the field of andragogy. Facilitators: Lisa Buono, Director, Bachelor's Degree for Professionals, CLU; Dr. Ariana Young, Professor of Psychology, CLU; and Ryan DeMoss, Professor of Mathematics, CLU
11:00-12:15	FH 217	Grow Your Mind (Faculty Inquiry Group) Join FIG (faculty inquiry group) members to find out what they've been reading and learning the past year about interdisciplinary best practices, including culturally relevant teaching, growth mindset, and integrating the habits of mind--all researched approaches to improving student success! Also, find out how to become part of FIG or even start your own Figlet! Facilitators: Tracy Tennenhouse, Diane Scrofano, Katie Booth
11:00-12:15	FH 220	Classified Senate Planning Meeting—Professional Development Funds For the first time, the state has awarded classified staff professional development funding! Please join us on 8/14 to learn more about this funding and help us plan out the year. Facilitator: Gilbert Downs

12:30-1:15	Cafeteria	Lunch with New Student Welcome All faculty and staff are welcomed to join the New Student Welcome for lunch at the Campus Center. We invite you to sit with our new students as an opportunity to welcome them to the campus. Students will be working on an activity encouraging them to meet and interact with the members of the Moorpark College learning community. Lunch is coming from the Habit, and there will be hamburgers, veggie burgers, and gluten-free lettuce wrapped burgers on request at the food station. Please sign-in at the faculty volunteer table by the Campus Center on the day to pick up your lunch ticket, and if possible wear Moorpark college gear to show our spirit!

Lauren also serves as a professional learning coordinator for the California Community Colleges' Success Network. She earned her BA in English from the University of Hawaii, Manoa, MA in English Literature from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and MEd. in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Washington, Seattle. Lauren's varied professional interests are firmly rooted in her experiences of growing up on Oahu, talking story, speaking Hawaiian Creole, and being mixed race, multiethnic, and a first-generation college student. Her main educational inquiry has been how to most effectively help first-generation, linguistically and culturally diverse students acquire agency in higher education and gain access to multiple literacies, including academic discourse, to transform their worlds. As an educator, she has focused her professional practice on developing critical consciousness and cultivating humility, for equity work requires on-going praxis and an acknowledgement that there is always more work to be done and always more to learn.
