Check out specific college Transfer Guides and checklists found on college websites that you plan to attend.

September: begin researching scholarships available at transfer institutions, by looking at the universities' web sites.

October 1-November 30: attend a CSU Application Workshop, and apply online for admission to CSU. Attend a UC Personal Statement Workshop and begin writing your UC personal statement.

November 1-30: attend a UC Application Workshop and a UC Personal Statement Workshop, and apply online for admission to UC.
The UC application will go online October 1, but cannot be submitted until November 1.
Submit it early in November! Don't wait until the last day!

January: update your UC application online to include fall semester grades, and courses planned for winter session/spring semester, at www.universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions.
Order your official Moorpark College transcripts through your VCCCD Student Portal and send your official transcript to CSU, showing fall semester grades when requested.

January-February: attend a TAP certification workshop for UCLA.

January 1 – March 2: fill out and submit the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) at www.fafsa.gov.
The Financial Aid Office is available virtually.

February: Meet with a Counselor to complete your Graduation Application (AA/AS degree).

March 1 – May 1: universities will send admissions letters to students or will post admissions notices on their campus web sites.

May: attend Moorpark College Graduation Ceremony and the Career Transfer Center's Transfer Social. Participate in the Transfer Center's Wall of Fame.

June 1: submit your SIR (Statement of Intent to Register) if planning to attend a UC campus, as well as making sure you send transcripts if requested by specific college campus you plan to attend.

June (end of semester): order your official transcript with spring semester grades if planning to attend a CSU campus.

End of semester: request IGETC or CSUGE certification. This is separate from your final transcript request.

July 15: deadline to submit your final transcripts from all institutions attended (including spring semester grades) if planning to attend a UC campus.

July-August: CSU campuses have varying deadlines to submit final transcripts. Pay attention to the deadline date of the CSU you will attend. Failure to submit transcripts by the deadline could result in the cancellation of your admission.
