

MAJOR SELF- EXPLORATION WORKSHOPS

ROADTRIP NATION: DEFINE YOUR OWN ROAD MONDAY, JULY 12, 2021

Explore career opportunities that reflect who you are. Rethink what you knew about work by watching video interviews of people who are passionate about their work to discover what career can truly be. Explore Roadtrip Nation's personalized career exploration tools to get connected to occupations and career fields you may have not considered.

CALIFORNIA CAREERZONE KEEP YOUR PLAN ON TRACK WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 2021

California Careerzone provides students with activities to explore the world of work at their own pace. Complete a skills assessment to learn about which activities you would like to spend time doing at work. Learn about the occupations that are compatible with your skill set to assist in your career decision-making.

CAREER CRUISING: INITIATE YOUR CAREER JOURNEY TUESDAY, JULY 13, 2021

Career Cruising is a self-exploration and planning program that provides interactive career development activities and resources when exploring majors and occupations. Take the "Matchmaker Assessment" to get a list of career matches based on your interests. From there, you will be able to find in-depth information related to your results!

CAREER ONE STOP: YOUR FULL SERVICE STOP THURSDAY, JULY 15, 2021

The U.S. Department of Labor created a website where career information and resources are available, one of them being a Work Values Assessment. Learning about your Work Values will help you identify what will motivate you to want to go to work so that you feel fulfilled and satisfied!
