

1941:Hearts Involved

Audition Scene

IRENE:

Well. What can you tell me about yourself?

FRANK:

Well, I'm shipping off soon. I've always wanted to be in the military because I looked up to my father so much.

IRENE:

My father is the most important person in the world to me. Are you close with yours?

FRANK:

I was. I lost my father about 6 years ago.

IRENE:

Oh, I'm so sorry.

FRANK:

Thank you. Can I be honest with you? A lot of the guys I talk to are looking forward to actual combat. They look forward to being on the battlefield and fighting the enemy.

IRENE:

And you?

FRANK:

I look forward to being a veteran. I loved my father. I don't know why I'm telling you this. Probably because I'm about to leave. I'm unsure about my time as a soldier. I'm....I'm unsure about a lot of things.

IRENE:

It's okay. You can talk to me.
