

BLACK HISTORY: MONTH MOORPARK COLLEGE

A VIRTUAL MONTH-LONG
CELEBRATION FEB 2022

ZOOM REGISTRATION LINK

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
MOORPARKCOLLEGE.EDU/BHM

FEBRUARY 2

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

KICK-OFF EVENT 3PM-4PM

Opening Remarks & Tribute Film

Presentation: Bobby Seals, Ethnic Studies Faculty

ZOOM LINK

FEBRUARY 7

DAVID BIRCHMAN, ENGLISH FACULTY

TRIBUTE TO JOSEPHINE BAKER 3PM-4PM

Last November Josephine Baker, the American-born entertainer, undercover spy, and civil rights activist who first achieved fame in Paris in the 1920s and 1930s, was given France's highest honor on when she was inducted into the French Pantheon, the nation's mausoleum of heroes. This presentation will discuss her life and times.

ZOOM LINK

FEBRUARY 15

ASMC SPONSORED 11:30AM

ACROBATS FROM CAMEROON

ON CAMPUS IN THE MC QUAD

FEBRUARY 16

ASMC SPONSORED 1:15PM

STEEL DRUM PERFORMERS

ON CAMPUS IN THE MC QUAD

FEBRUARY 22

STUDENT VOICES: THE HARLEM RENAISSANCE
& THE "NEW NEGRO AESTHETIC" 10AM-11:15AM

HOST: TAMARRA COLEMAN

American Literature, English M13B, students will read selected Harlem Renaissance poetry and discuss how those works reflect a "Negro Aesthetic". The session will highlight the philosophy of African American philosopher Alain Locke.

ZOOM LINK

FEBRUARY 23

LES WIEDER: 3PM-5:15PM

Les Wieder has been a successful, theatre producer, director and writer for over 40 years. Screening of Award Winning Film, Do Something, a film about George Floyd with a Q&A after the screening

ZOOM LINK

FEBRUARY 25 FINALE

SPECIAL GUEST JAMIE FOXX 4:30PM-6:00PM

Join us for an intimate conversation with Academy Award, Golden Globe, and Grammy Award winner Jamie Foxx, who will discuss his career and rise to prominence and his love for sports. This conversation is sponsored by the Lady Raiders Basketball and the Black Family at Moorpark College.

ON CAMPUS @THE FORUM & ZOOM LINK