I originally wrote this show for an assignment for Nick Pappas's AMAZING script analysis class. He also offered extra credit for those who submitted their plays for the one acts... and here we are now! A big thank you to Nick Pappas, also to Suzanne Fagan for giving this show a chance. To Miccala for being my rock during this process, as well as my family, friends, and actors Brianna, Arianna, and especially Ashlyn who helped bring an accurate representation to this show. I hope this show will inspire you, encourage you to try new things, and above all be open to communicate to people from all walks of life.
