California Residents

California residents must pay the mandated Enrollment fee of $46.00 per unit. California residents meeting certain criteria may be eligible for a California College Promise Grant *formerly known as Board of Governors (BOG) Fee Waiver Application or other financial aid. Contact the Financial Aid Office (/services_for_students/financial_aid), (805) 378-1462.

Non-California Residents

Non-California residents must pay non-resident tuition, plus the enrollment fee, the Non-California Resident Capital Outlay Fee, health fee, student center fee and applicable material fees. You are a nonresident if you have lived in California for less than one year and one day prior to the first day of the semester, or you are unable to present sufficient documentation to prove that you have established California residency. See the college catalog (/catalog) for residency information.

[1] Education Code section 68075.6 grants an immediate nonresident tuition fee exemption to eligible Special Immigrant Visa (SIV) holders and refugee students who settled in California upon entering the United States. This exemption is granted for one year from the date the student settled in California upon entering the United States. This exemption applies to the following:

- Iraqi citizens or nationals (and their spouses and children) who were/employed by or on behalf of the United States Government in Iraq (Pub.L. No. 110-181, § 1244)
- Afghan and Iraqi translators (and their spouses and children) who worked directly with the United States Armed Forces (Pub.L. No. 109-163, § 1059)
- Afghanistan nationals who were employed by or on behalf of the U.S. government or in the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) in Afghanistan (Pub.L. No. 111-8, § 602)

- Refugee students admitted to the United States under Section 1157 of Title 8 of the United States Code

International Students

International students must pay enrollment fees, the health fee, nonresident tuition and:

[2] A Foreign Student Capital Outlay Fee unless they meet one of the exemptions listed below pursuant to Ed Code §76141:

- Students must demonstrate economic hardship.
- Be a victim of persecution in the country in which the student is a resident.

[3] Students are required to pay the fee unless they meet one of the exemptions listed below pursuant to Ed Code §76142:

- Student must demonstrate economic hardship.
- Be a victim of persecution in the country in which the student is a resident.

Health Fees

The health fee provides you with a variety of health care services. In accordance with Board policy, students are required to pay a health fee, regardless of the units taken, unless they meet one of the exemptions listed below pursuant to Ed Code §76355:

- Any student who depends exclusively on prayer for healing in accordance with the teachings of a bonafide religious sect, denomination, or organization. Documentary evidence of such an affiliation is required.
- Student attending college under an apprenticeship training program.

Student Center Fee

[4] Students of Moorpark College voted to enact a student center fee of $1.00 per unit up to a maximum of $10.00 per student per fiscal year for the purpose of financing, constructing, expanding, remodeling, refurbishing and operating a Student Center. The fee shall not apply to:

- students enrolled in non-credit courses
- students who are recipients of benefits under Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program
- students on the Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Program (SSI/SSP)
- students on a General Assistance Program

Student Representation Fee (optional)

The student representation fee, of $2 per semester, provides support for students or representatives, including Student Senate of the California Community Colleges (SSCCC), who share positions and viewpoints
