

AARON, ALEX, KENNY

AARON

Alright, you know the deal, kid. But seeing as you could barely carry some damn cameras in here, I'll explain it one more time to get it through your thick skull.

Horribly condescending, Aaron shoves the string into Kenny's arms.

AARON (CONT'D)

This, is a roll of string. Your job is to tie it to the cabinets, doors, anything we can use to make it look like there's actually a ghost in this place, got it? And when we signal you-

KENNY

Uhm, Aaron?

AARON

What, Kenny?

As Kenny speaks, he begins to tie pieces of string to the back of a chair, the cabinet door of a bookshelf, and numerous other set pieces.

KENNY

Do we really have to do all this rigging stuff? I.. I've been reading the comments on our latest video-

ALEX

Our latest video.

KENNY

And I think the viewers are really starting to get suspicious. Like-Like they know we're faking it all! I was just thinking that.. I dunno. Maybe we can actually try and catch something real this time?

AARON

AARON, ALEX, KENNY

Kenny Morris. You're telling me you actually believe in this shit?

KENNY

... You don't?

AARON

No!

KENNY

What?! What do you mean?! You.. You guys base your whole personality around this ghost stuff! You're telling me you don't believe in any of it?

ALEX

Of course we don't believe in it, dipshit.

AARON

Ghost videos are just the next big thing! It's what brings in the views. Have you ever even seen Paranormal Activity? They made that into a play!

ALEX

Besides, there's no such thing as ghosts, or spirits, or.. whatever. Why spend all our time talking to the air when we can create some real drama right here, right now?

KENNY

But-

AARON

Just shut up and film, Kenny.
